Your Pentagon Consultant experience in teaching, as I can

Nicole Fairman

Outdoor learning has always been a huge passion of mine as it enables every child to take risk, overcome challenges whilst finding out who they truly are. My passion stems from my previous recognise the importance of providing opportunities for learning to be taken beyond the confines of a classroom. I would find it incredibly rewarding to be able to work with your school to help achieve your vision. Together, we can create and design an environment which is bespoke to the needs of your children, so that every child has happy memories of the great outdoors whilst at school.
