Dear Year 2 Parents/Carers

We are delighted to let you know that HPS have been selected by the School Literacy Network and Libraries Unlimited to be a part of Devon's 'Poetry in Residence' week. This means that on Thursday 24th October, National Poetry Day ambassador and children's author, James Carter, will be visiting HPS to lead some poetry workshops.

On this day, Year 2 have been selected to participate in a poetry workshop at Honiton Library. This workshop will take place after lunch and will end with some wonderful poetry performances from the children. To make this extra special, we are inviting parents and carers of Year 2 children to come along to the library and watch their poetry performances!

If you would like to attend, please be at Honiton Library for 1:50pm. The performances will begin at 2:00pm and will last for around 30 minutes. The children will then be walking back to school afterwards, in time for the end of the day, to be picked up at 3:20pm.

This workshop will be happening in the afternoon only, so the children will eat their lunch at school as normal. Please, however, make sure to pack a coat for your child in case of wet weather while walking to and from the library.

Please use your Weduc app to give your consent to your child attending this event, this can be found in the "payments" section.

We look forward to hopefully seeing lots of you at the library,

The Year 2 Team
